It is believed that far too often we take for granted some of the finest things of life: the love of God for us, the love of husband and wife, the love of parents for a child and that of a child for its parents, the love of brothers and sisters, the love of other relatives and friends, and the love of our country. The measure of the meaning and significance of these and other things for us is realized in direct proportion to our conscious awareness of and meditation on them.

Our senses of sight, sound, touch, smell, and taste have become too dulled for some of us actually to be aware of the very air we breathe, a blue sky, a bright sun, a gentle rain, the good earth, the trees, with their roots, fruit, bark, and leaves, the beauty and delicacy of flowers, the sowing of seed and their harvest, the coo and cry of a baby, the smile and faith of a child, the affection and faithfulness of a dog -- the elemental things of life in and around us.

Our going along from day to day, at times almost or completely absorbed in the too often selfish pursuits of material things, does not do away with these infinitely precious things that we take for granted. They have been there all the time, now are, and will continue.

There are occasions, however, when fortunately we consciously stop or otherwise are stopped in our tracks, and although it may be something ranging from a deep personal loss or a heavy jolt to nothing more than a dimple or a twinkle of an eye or a high and sweet note of a bird's song, whatever the cause, it is then that we do become somewhat aware of these things that do matter, that have been, are, and will continue to be a part of our heritage and stream of being.

To the extent that we have been able and are able to closely identify ourselves with that which has gone before us, and is with us, allowing it to be a vital part of us, even to the strengthening of our loins, is the meaning and purpose of our and all existence made more evident.

Perhaps this record of the descendants of Green and Mary Solomon Brantley, in a measure, will cause us to stop and think, at least for a moment, of our heritage and its rich meanings, of their and our place in the stream of time and events, from whom and whence we came, who and where we are, and whither we are going. If it makes even some of us, in this and future generations, more aware of the fine heritage that is ours and our place in the continuously flowing stream of time, it will have served something of its purpose.

Our forebears were strong, sturdy folk; they were energetic and ambitious individuals, each with a personality distinctively his or her own. In their trek westward to newly opened land for settlement, they conquered a virgin wilderness. They helped in laying the very foundations upon which this great nation of ours is built. They were honorable, upright, and just. Their noble qualities of character were surpassed by none. We have every reason to take pride in their accomplishments, integrity, and the heritage which they left us.

To easily make this a lengthy preface is a temptation to which I shall not yield, there being too many already to which I do. There were times in attempting to get together the material for this record that I was strongly tempted to abandon the idea, but generally some additional expression of interest in such a record or the receipt of belated assistance and cooperation from some individual would act as sufficient encouragement and motivation for me to continue.

I owe sincere gratitude to so many individuals for their interest, encouragement, and assistance in making this record possible that it is impracticable for me to list them here. As a token acknowledgement, however, I shall list a few of those to whom I am deeply indebted, foremost among them being my lovely wife for her great patience in bearing with me through the countless hours consumed in its preparation. It seems fitting that I should mention Rev. F. S. Moseley, a Methodist minister, whose interest in and enthusiasm for genealogy first made me actively interested in it many years ago. Others, listed almost at random, whose help has been invaluable, include: Mrs. Pamela Ann G. Ryland; Mrs. Eva Blanche A. Brantley; Mrs. Mittie Edna R. Nall; Mrs. Daisy Louise M. Curry, and her late husband, Mr. James Allen Curry; Mr. and Mrs. Purnell Salter; Mrs. Marion Louise B. Vernon; Mr. Myron J. Shires; Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Mathe-ny; my sister, Mrs. Hattie Jean Brantley; Mrs. Imogene C. Andrews; Mrs. Sarah (Sallie) Emily E. Weekley; Mrs. Essie Kate B. Hamilton; the late Mrs. Mary Alice B. Rikard; Miss Malva Margrette Brantley; the late Mrs. Daisy Lee D. Burkett; Mrs. Maggie Elizabeth B. Cofield; Mrs. Lizzie Mae H. Culbreth; Mrs. Willene Marie D. Coady; Mrs. Minnie Lee C. Bunting; Mrs. Della Brantley H. Richard; Mrs. Idabel Elizabeth L. Hayes; Mrs. Mary Naomi B. Knight; Miss Doris Sibyl Owen; Miss Nan Alice Thompson; and my late father, Mr. Ajax Oelious Brantley.

This record is not as complete and accurate as I would like for it to be. It, however, is about as much so as time, effort, and stretched patience over a period of several years could make it. I hope that someone of the descendants will be sufficiently interested in it as to add to, revise, correct, and bring it more to a state of completeness in a later edition.

Two of the children of Green and Mary Solomon Brantley as shown on Page 10 have asterisks indicated in connection with their date of birth. In addition to Boykin B. Brantley and Susan Brantley whose dates of birth are subject to question, Joseph S. Brantley may be included also. The date of birth of Boykin B. Brantley, when determined from information on his death certificate, would be in conflict with that of his brother, Joseph S. Brantley. The death certificate of Boykin B. Brantley shows his date of death as Jan. 4, 1914 and that he was 76 years, 6 months, and 16 days old at the time of his death. According to my calculations, this definitely would place his year of birth as 1837 and at a time in that year which conflicts with the date of May 3, 1837 as shown on the tombstone of Joseph S. Brantley as the date of birth of the latter. The possibility of their being twins is ruled out on the basis of known facts, substantiated by a repeatedly made assertion * and claim on the part of both Boykin B. Brantley and Susan Brantley as to each of them being the youngest child of Green and Mary Solomon Brantley. It is my belief, however, that Susan Brantley was born about 1845, possibly as late as 1847.

Old census records frequently are of great help in resolving dates of birth. Such records can also be misleading. Certainly they are not always accurate, or if so, the writing so often is very dim and indistinct as to cause one to be unable to decipher it or easily to make a mistake in trying to determine the age as shown. The accuracy of such old records is dependent upon the efficiency and accuracy of the enumerator who took the census, the degree of knowledge of the individual or individuals who supplied the information to the enumerator, the circumstances under which the listing was made, the existence of family records, and many other factors. We must not be harsh, however, in our judgment or intolerant of these inaccuracies in the light of the conditions and circumstances as used to prevail. Our foreparents did not have the educational advantages of today; many of them - indeed, most of the citizenry - could not read or write, but this in no wise deterred them from conquering a wilderness, wresting a living from the results of their labor, and rearing their children to be strong, sturdy individuals whose goodness was as the salt of the earth.

This digression from a determination of the date of birth of some of the children of Green and Mary Solomon Brantley leads back to the probable date of birth of Susan Brantley. In the 1850 census I believe I have mistakenly read her age as 15, or that it was recorded in error as such, instead of 5. She is listed in the household of her parents in that census, which was enumerated on Sept. 19, 1850. If, then, she were born in 1845, this would tie in perfectly with the age shown for her in the 1870 census, where she is shown as 25 in the household of her sister and brother-in-law, Isaac and Beady (Brantley) Hines. The Susan Brantley listed in the household of Lazarus and Eliza Carter in 1860 is doubtless one and the same as the daughter of Green and Mary Solomon Brantley. Her father had died in 1858 and her mother in 1859; she would have been about 15. The 1860 census record shows the Susan Brantley in the Carter home as 23, but here again I believe I have misread the record or it has been stated in error; it could well be that I should have read the "23" as "13" or even "15", in which case she would have been born either in 1847 or 1845. It was not until 1878 that she married George Washington House, a widower.

It may well be that Susan Brantley was the youngest child of Green and Mary Solomon Brantley. The compiler of this record, however, is not convinced that Boykin B. Brantley was the youngest male child in that family. There is evidence of sufficient weight, I believe, to support such a conviction. It is my belief that Lazarus Solomon Brantley was the youngest male child in this family. Although two most reliable records differ as to the date in September 1912 when Lazarus Solomon Brantley died, they both are in agreement as to the year, with his death certificate indicating that he was 74 at the time; this would have placed his year of birth in 1838. It seems to me that the same credence should be given to the accuracy of information shown on the death certificate of Boykin Brantley (Page 122), which would place his year of birth in 1837. If 1838 and 1837 are correct for Lazarus Solomon Brantley and Boykin B. Brantley, respectively, then it would seem that May 3, 1836 would be more nearly in line with the date of birth of Joseph S. Brantley. Additional research, unquestionably, needs to be done in this particular area.

Information yet is needed as to the date of death of Lucinda and Gahzy Brantley. Lucinda is shown as 25 in the household of her parents in 1850; in 1860 she is listed as 34 and in the household of George L. Lee. There is evidence that Gahzy, a female, was living and in the Green Brantley household in 1840; beyond that I have been unable to ascertain anything more than her date and county of birth.

Among the pictures on the walls of the private office of Monroe County (Ala.) Probate Judge E. T. "Short" Millsap, Monroeville, Ala., there is a photographic portrayal of the first statewide "Good Roads" meeting held in 1915 at the community of Burnt Corn, Ala. Foremost in the picture is a small wagon, pulled by a billy goat, held by its young owner, now John L. Betts, Monroeville postmaster. (See Sept. 12, 1957 issue of "The Monroe (Ala.) Journal"). Through the courtesy of Mr. Samuel Graves Lowrey of Burnt Corn, Ala., the compiler of this record has a framed copy of this picture.

A map of Conecuh County, Ala. is also shown, indicating the route of the old stage road which ran through Belleville from Cahaba to Pensacola.

Belleville, Ala. was first known as "The Ponds" but soon came to be known by its present name after several Bell brothers established homes and businesses there. In the December 13, 1819 issue of "The Halcyon and Tombeckbe Public Advertiser", published at St. Stephens, Ala., a David W. Brantley advertised that he had ten or fifteen hundred bushels of lime to sell at St. Stephens. The same advertisement appeared in issues of this publication for December 20, 1819, Jan. 10, 17, and 24, 1820; in the Feb. 7 and 14, 1820 issues he advertises 1500 bushels for sale.

In the "Semi-centennial History of the Second Baptist Church of Atlanta, Georgia, November 27-30, 1904", edited and arranged by M. L. Brittain, there is a picture of Rev. William T. Brantley, D.D., and an article about him. It indicates that he was pastor of that church from 1861 to 1871, with the exception of a short interval, during which the membership was scattered on account of the War. Quoting in part from this book: "Elegant in manner, handsome in appearance, eloquent in speech, he was a charming man and a fine type of the Southern gentleman. He resigned in 1871 to accept the pastorate of the Seventh Baptist Church of Baltimore, Maryland, where he labored most acceptably until his death."

Of interest is William Henderson Brantley's "Three Capitals - A Book About the First Three Capitals of Alabama", which was privately printed, 1947, by The Merrymount Press, Boston.

Mrs. Patrick Hues Mell states in "Revolutionary Soldiers Buried in Alabama", 1904: "For a period of years after the Revolution, Alabama was anything but a 'land of rest'. The French struggle was over, but Spaniards, English, Americans, and Indians contended for the mastery of the territory. This is probably the reason why there are no Revolutionary land grants to be found in the State. During the Revolution the white inhabitants of Alabama were loyal to the Crown and therefore they were not entitled to bounty lands. The thirteen original States gave liberally to their soldiers. Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee were thickly peopled with old soldiers and their families who settled on bounty lands. But there were no free lands in Alabama, prices were high and in 1819 public lands sold for as much or more at the sales in Huntsville and St. Stephens as the same land would bring today."

The parents of Mary Solomon Brantley (1795-1859) were Lazarus and Elizabeth (Bedgood) Solomon. He was born in Washington County, North Carolina in 1765, enlisted at the age of sixteen as a private in the 10th regiment, North Carolina troops, from Rhodes County, and died at Jeffersonville, Georgia in 1837. The county in which he was born was situated on Albemarle Sound, across from which lay Chowan, which had been settled 112 years previously by Roger Green and his colonists from Virginia. In 1765, however, there was no Washington County as such; it was formed in 1779 from Tyrrell County, and Tyrrell County was formed in 1729 from Albemarle County. Tyrrell County was named in honor of Sir John Tyrrell, who at one time was one of the Lords Proprietors. Martin County in part was formed also from Tyrrell County in 1774, so Lazarus Solomon actually was born in Tyrrell County, North Carolina.

Five years before Lazarus Solomon was born the revolution and union were gradually forming. From 1760 to 1776 the revolution was in the minds of the people, and the union of the colonies. In 1776, on July 4, Congress passed the Declaration of Independence, at which time Lazarus Solomon was eleven years old. It was not until thirteen years later, however, that North Carolina joined the Union, demanding a clause guaranteeing religious freedom before ratifying the constitution.

When Lazarus Solomon was ten years old, the first blood of the American War of Independence was shed. In that year, 1775, took place the battles at Concord, Lexington, Ticonderoga, Bunker Hill, Ft. Moultrie, Long Island, Harlem Heights, White Plains, Ft. Washington, Ft. Lee, and Trenton. After that, in 1778, came the battles of Monmouth, Quaker Hill, and Savannah. In the following year, another chief battle took place at Savannah. Then in 1780, when Lazarus Solomon was 15 years old, came the battles at Camden, South Carolina and King's Mountain. This was enough for the boy, so the next year, 1781, he enlisted as #89694 as shown in North Carolina Revolutionary Army accounts. During the year of his enlistment, Lord Cornwallis and the British Army surrendered at Yorktown, Virginia, but not before the bloody battles of Cowpens, South Carolina and Guilford Court House, North Carolina had been fought. Records show that he was still in the Army six months after Cornwallis' surrender, and it is probable that the occurrence under date of April 25, 1782 in connection with his record was when he laid down arms for a more peaceful way of life.

Lazarus Solomon was 17 years old when he was honorably discharged or mustered out of the Army, but it was not until about six years after that, when he was 23, that he married. Whether he married a North Carolina girl whom he had known all his life or a girl whose people were already settled in Georgia, I do not know. It is definitely known, however, that he married a Miss Elizabeth Bedgood, who was born in 1767, and their first child, Delilah, was born in 1789. Just when he came to Georgia from North Carolina, I do not know, but when he went back to civilian life in 1782 a commercial depression was beginning, and this depression lasted until 1788. He may have joined scores of other veterans and moved on into the interior of the country--Georgia--before he married. It is known, however, that the seventh child, James, of Lazarus and Elizabeth Bedgood Solomon was born in Georgia in 1800.

These new undeveloped lands in Georgia and elsewhere held promise, and particularly was this true after Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin in 1793. Men who had fought in the Revolution were rewarded for their services by being granted a track of land in the hinterlands. Georgia was generous in this respect, and not only did she make out-right land grants to veterans but disposed of her remaining public lands through lotteries. There were five different lotteries of land authorized by the Georgia General Assembly, viz.: 1805, 1820, 1821, 1827, and 1831. All that territory of the State north of original Early County and lying between the Flint and Chattahoochee Rivers was divided into districts and each district into land lots of 202½ acres and disposed of by lottery in 1827. Apparently every white man, widow, and orphan, resident of the State, was entitled to one draw, and every Revolutionary soldier was entitled to two draws. Although Lazarus Solomon certainly had been in Georgia since 1800, and probably longer, and his fourteenth and last child was then 13 years old, he won land in the 1827 lottery located in Twiggs County. This is established by reference to "Georgia's Roster of the Revolution", on page 368 in the section dealing with Land Lottery Grants. He probably had received a land grant out-right when he first came to Georgia from North Carolina.

Lazarus Solomon probably first settled in Wilkinson County, Georgia, which at that time comprised land which later was divided into several counties. We find early mention of Lazarus Solomon being established in Twiggs County, Ga., and Twiggs County was created by Legislative Act, Dec. 14, 1809, from Wilkinson County. It was named for General John Twiggs, an illustrious soldier of the Revolution, who commanded an independent body of troops. The original county-seat of Twiggs was Marion; on Feb. 11, 1850, an Act was approved authorizing a removal of the county-seat to such a place as the Inferior Court might designate on certain lands owned by Henry Solomon (in all probability the second son of Lazarus, born in 1791). The same act prescribes that the new county-seat was likewise to be called Marion, but the removal contemplated in this Act was not accomplished until years afterward, when the site of public buildings was fixed at Jeffersonville, a town named for the great sage of Monticello. Marion, the original seat of government, was named for General Francis Marion, of South Carolina. Reference is here made to "Georgia's Landmarks, Memorials and Legends" (in two volumes) by Lucian Lamar Knight, 1914.

The children of Lazarus and Elizabeth Bedgood Solomon, as shown in their family Bible and copied by Mrs. A. J. Toole of Dublin, Ga., and also listed on page 216 of McCall's "Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers in Georgia" were: (1) Delilah, b. Sept. 12, 1789, d. Feb. 25, 1815; (2) Henry, b. March 22, 1791; (3) William, b. Dec. 7, 1792; (4) Mary, b. Jan. 13, 1795; (5) John, b. Jan. 3, 1797; (6) Dicey, b. Jan. 25, 1799; (7) James, b. Oct. 17, 1800; (8) Sarah, b. Oct. 10, 1802; (9) Fannie, b. Sept. 17, 1804; (10) Peter, b. Aug. 4, 1806; (11) Hardy, b. May 17, 1808; (12) Carol, b. Sept. 30, 1810; (13) Lewis, b. Oct. 4, 1812; and (14) Elizabeth, b. March 11, 1814.

I have extensive documented notes on the brothers and sisters of Mary Solomon, who m. Green Brantley, Jan. 5, 1817, Washington County, Georgia. Neither space nor the purpose of this record permits me to incorporate it here. It should be mentioned, however, that the grave of her father, Lazarus Solomon, in Wilkinson County, Georgia is listed as having been marked by the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution. Reference to him is cited in binder's title, "John Laurens Chapter, DAR", Georgia, page 51, certified Bible records, 1932.

Although evidence seems to point to the fact that Mary Solomon Brantley was born in 1795, her tombstone in the Joyner Cemetery, near Burnt Corn, Ala., shows 1797 as her date of birth. In either case, she would have been eighteen or twenty years old at the time of her marriage to Green Brantley. After their marriage they continued to live in Georgia for almost eleven years, during which time eight of their children were born. They moved from Twiggs County, Ga. in 1827, either leaving there on October 27th or arriving in Conecuh County, Ala. on that date. This date is shown on the marker of the grave of their son, Lot Whit Brantley (1827-1904). See page 11. They moved during the administration of John Quincy Adams, the sixth President. Green and Mary Solomon Brantley had two sets of twins among their fourteen children. With no confirmation, whatsoever, it has been said they had three sets of twins; if this be true, it would seem they had fifteen instead of fourteen children. Perhaps some of their descendants will pursue this as a line of inquiry.

The first capitol of Alabama was at St. Stephens in the eastern part of Washington County, on the west bank of the Tombigbee River, about 100 miles from Mobile. On March 3, 1817 Congress passed the act which established the territory of Alabama. This act provided that the town of St. Stephens "shall be the seat of the government for the said Alabama territory, until it shall be otherwise ordered by the Legislature thereof". St. Stephens was selected because it was at that time the most flourishing town within the limits of the new territory. It had a bank, a land office, doctors, lawyers, merchants, and the usual number of adventurers; indeed, it even had a newspaper. Brown's Western Gazetter for 1817 declared, "It contains about 250 houses, a printing office, an academy, and 15 stores". In 1818 the population was 1,500 persons.

The second capitol of the State was Huntsville, and the third capitol was Cahaba.

In 1825 the capitol was moved to Tuscaloosa, which remained the seat of government until 1846. It was while the capitol was at Tuscaloosa that Green Brantley and Mary Solomon Brantley came to the Yellowhammer State. When they came to Conecuh County the only physician between the Alabama and Chattahoochee Rivers was Dr. John Watkins, who at the time was 42 years of age. He represented Butler, Conecuh, and Monroe Counties in the State Senate 1828-1842-1845 and was one of the framers of the constitution of the State; he represented Monroe County in the first legislature of the new state in 1819. For 26 years he probably was the only physician used by Green and Mary Brantley before his death in 1853. He is buried at Burnt Corn, Ala.

When Green and Mary Solomon Brantley moved to Conecuh County, Ala. in 1827, fourteen years after the Canoe Fight, they saw the grave of the young wife of the equally young hero of the Canoe Fight which took place Nov. 12, 1813. Jeremiah Austill, whose name is synonymous with that fight, was born Aug. 10, 1794 in South Carolina, the son of Capt. Evan Austill. His mother was the only sister of Col. David Files, who died in Alabama in 1820. On March 9, 1819 Jere Austill was married to Martha Hayse, daughter of Captain James Hayse of Burnt Corn, Ala., no doubt one and the same as the James Hayes who was postmaster at Burnt Corn Spring in 1821. In 1820 the body of Martha Austill had been brought by ox-team from Claiborne to Burnt Corn for burial to prevent Indians from desecrating her grave. Her grave stands alone in a pasture at Burnt Corn, with the following inscription on its stone:

Sacred to the Memory of Martha Austill
who departed this Life
November 1st 1820
In the 19th year of her age.

Here Martha Austill lies in early life
She died a Christian and a virtuous wife.
On her Redeemer's pardon she relied,
And praising God with resignation died.
Nor husband's grief nor parents care could save
This youthful matron from the silent grave.

After the death of his wife, Jeremiah Austill then sold his farm at Burnt Corn and paid off some $7,000 in debt, and returned two negroes which had been given to his wife by Capt. Hayse.

When Green and Mary Solomon Brantley, with their children, moved to Conecuh County, Ala. from Twiggs County, Ga. they doubtless found a good many people whom they had known earlier in Georgia. About 1817 there removed from Twiggs County, Ga., a Baptist minister, whose name was David Wood. Though blind, he was an earnest, practical devoted minister of the truth. He preached the first sermon ever delivered in Conecuh County, in a small rude cabin, which stood on the spot of ground now occupied by the graveyard, near the Belleville Baptist Church. A little later than this, the first school ever instituted in Conecuh was established by John Greene, Sr., who came to Conecuh County as early as 1816. At that time it was embraced within the broad limits of Monroe County, Conecuh not becoming a separately organized county until January 1818.

James Grace, at quite an early period in the history of Conecuh, came from Jackson County, Ga. and built a home very near the present village of Burnt Corn. Two years later he was followed by the families of Joshua Betts, Thomas P. Jones, George Kyser, John Greene, Sr., Samuel Salter, Richard Warren, Joel Lee, Garrett Longmire, and Harry Waldrom. These settled within a circuit of a few miles, during the years 1816 and 1818.

Postal facilities were established at an early date between Burnt Corn and Blakeley and Burnt Corn and Conecuh Court House. This is brought out in a proposal for carrying mails between these points in the October 11, 1819 issue of "The Halcyon and Tombeckbe Public Advertiser", published at St. Stephens. In 1947 the compiler of this record had certain of these early proposals published in the "Western Stamp Collector", Albany, Oregon.

Green and Mary Solomon Brantley also found at Burnt Corn a Baptist Church which had been organized six years before they came to Conecuh. This church was organized on August 13, 1821, with the following members: G. Longmire, Charles P. Salter and his wife Sarah Salter, E. Riley, --- Carter, C. Waldrum, H. Longmire, S. Carter, --- Riley, and Mary Waldrum. William Jones and Dempsey Winborn acted as bishops, and James Salter as deacon.

B-2 It is believed that Martin P. Brantley, b. Sept. 19, 1841, d. at an early age. He is not listed in the household of his parents, Oren and Nancy (Hawkins) Brantley, in the 1850 Monroe County, Ala. Census, although Mary A. E., Martha J., and Frances S. Brantley are listed. In 1850 Oren and Nancy H. Brantley lived next to John Hawkins. In 1860 there is a person named Archy Bartley, 18, in the household of Oren and Nancy H. Brantley, in addition to their then six living children. Civil War records show Oren (Orin) Brantley, Pvt., mustered in on Aug. 7, 1864 in Captain Snowden's Company of Alabama Reserves. (This Company subsequently became Company F, 4th Regiment, Alabama Reserves). His description: Age 47 yrs.; eyes Grey; hair Black; complexion Dark; height 5 ft., 9 in. Residence: Monroe Co., Ala. Enlisted at Mobile by Maj. W. M. Stone for the War. He appears on a Register of Ross Hospital, Mobile, Ala. under dates of Sept. 24-29, 1864 with complaint: Febris Intermittens Tert. Returned to duty 9/29/1864. He is also shown at Ross Hospital, Mobile, Ala., as admitted Oct. 23, 1864 and returned to duty on Nov. 7, 1864. Complaint: Febris congestiva; Febris Intermittens Quot. Name also appears as "Brantly". He was injured by a "minnie" ball which was never removed from his hip. In the 1870 Monroe County, Ala. Census, his daughter Frances (See Mc-1) is shown as teaching school and living in the household of her parents.

B-3 Mrs. Susan R. Page later was m. to William H. Duke at W. H. Duke's residence, Jan. 30, 1881, by S. L. Witherington, J.P. (There was a Mr. A. G. Duke whose wife was Rebecca Nash. They had two daughters, Mrs. Bettie Moseley and Mrs. Johnnie Green). Ely Brantley apparently was older than 16 at time of his death; the 1860 Conecuh County, Ala. Census shows him (Eli) as 17, a grocery clerk, in the household of H. H. and S. E. Brantley, Rural Hill.

B-4 Hilliard Brantley first settled in Panola County, Texas before moving on to Van Zandt County, Texas. Van Zandt County was formed in 1848 from Henderson County. He and his wife and family are listed in the 1880 Van Zandt County Census as living next to Henry Crane and Daniel Seales in Precinct #1. Mrs. Emeline Stokes Brantley apparently had a brother or sister or other close relative who also moved to Texas. Miss Alma Chambers of Wills Point, Texas is a descendant of this relative of Emeline Stokes Brantley. She is the daughter of G. W. and Mary E. Chambers. Her brother, Walter Stokes Chambers, was b. Oct. 13, 1882, Durant, Miss. He and his parents came to Wills Point, Texas in 1884. Alma and Walter Chambers had brothers named George W. Chambers and Charlie Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Preston Ryland (See R-12) of Bermuda, Ala. have an undated letter from Hilliard Brantley to his brother, Lot Whit Brantley. It was this very short letter that gave the compiler of this record the first clue as to where in Texas to begin a search for the descendants of Hilliard Brantley. This letter was found in the Lot Whit Brantley family Bible (published by Jesper Harding & Son, 1859, Philadelphia), which is in the custody of John Preston and Pamela Ann G. Ryland.

Attention is directed to the date of death shown for Sarah Brantley, the first-born daughter of Hilliard and Emeline Stokes Brantley. It is to be noted that this date, April 10, 1892, is identical to that of Stark Hunter Brantley (See B-16), the eldest child of Hilliard and Emeline S. Brantley. Luverne Whit Brantley (B-52) has in his possession certain records passed on to him by his father which show April 10, 1892 as date of death of Sarah Brantley; his records also show Johnnie Brantley as being born on June 18, 1853. These records which Luverne Whit Brantley has are the only ones to my knowledge that indicate Hilliard and Emeline S. Brantley were the parents of Sarah and Johnnie Brantley. It is certainly true that their dates of birth could fit into the pattern of births of the children of Hilliard and Emeline S. Brantley, that Johnnie may have died as a child or may have moved on, settling in an area considerably removed from other members of the family and completely losing communication with them. Neither Johnie nor Sarah are listed in the household of their parents in the 1880 Van Zandt County, Texas Census records, but this has no particular meaning in view of the fact that in 1880 Sarah would have been 29 years old and Johnie 27. When and where Johnie died is unknown; where Sarah died and whether she was married is also unknown. She would have been 41 years old at the time of her death. In so far as I have been able to determine, none of the Hilliard and Emeline S. Brantley descendants has any knowledge of the existence of Sarah and Johnie, with the exception of the record in the possession of Luverne Whit Brantley. Research is needed in this area; there are times when problems which seem most baffling at first turn out to be not so difficult of solution.

Mrs. Eva Blanche Alsup Brantley (B-48) has a newspaper clipping, probably from "The Wills Point (Tex.) Chronicle", relating to the death of Samuel Brantley, the fourth child of Hilliard and Emeline S. Brantley. It reads: "Sam Brantley died in Los Angeles, Calif., Monday morning, May 8, 1933. Funeral services were held Wednesday, conducted by the pastor of the Baptist church and attended by many friends. Many beautiful flowers were in evidence as tokens of love and sympathy. Interment took place in Evergreen cemetery, First Street, Los Angeles, Calif. Sam Brantley was born Nov. 8, 1856, in Evergreen, Ala. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Brantley. He came with his parents to Panola county, Texas, in the early pioneer days. Later the family moved to Van Zandt county where he spent most of his life and for several years served as mail carrier from Wills Point to Canton. He will be remembered by many friends here. A few years ago he and his sister, Miss Texanna Brantley, moved to Los Angeles, where he resided until his death. His health had been bad for several years but he bore his suffering with patience. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church, a kind brother, and a friend to all. He is survived by one sister, Miss Texanna Brantley of Los Angeles, Calif. The many friends extend sympathy to her in her bereavement."

Mrs. Riley Hilliard Brantley (B-48) also has a newspaper clipping, probably from "The Wills Point Chronicle", relating to the death of Texanna Brantley, the seventh child of Hilliard and Emeline S. Brantley. It reads: "Miss Texanna Brantley died at her home in Los Angeles, Calif., on August 9, at 8:30 p. m. Funeral services were held at French & Son funeral home Monday, Aug. 13, at 8:30 p. m. Services were conducted by her pastor and the Eastern Star chapter. Interment took place in Evergreen cemetery in that city. Many beautiful flowers were in evidence of love and esteem. Miss Texanna Brantley was born in Panola county, Feb. 20, 1865. She was the daughter of Hilliard and Emmaline Brantley. In early childhood she came with her parents to Van Zandt county, where she lived in and near Wills Point most of her life. She attended the State Teacher's College at Huntsville, received her certificate and taught in several of the schools in this county. Twelve years ago she and her brother, Sam, moved to Los Angeles, Calif., where she resided until her death. She had been in ill health for several years but bore her suffering with patience. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church, a life member of the Eastern Star Chapter in Wills Point and a kind friend to all. She is survived by several nieces and nephews: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson of Los Angeles, Calif., who were with her at the time of her death; R. H. Brantley, and a cousin, Miss Alma Chambers, of Wills Point, and others whose address is not known. The deceased is well known to all the older citizens and many friends here will regret to learn of her demise."

Panola County, Texas is referred to in the following article: "Panola County. --The Carthage area was further defined on the southeast flank with abandonment of Continental No. L-A Louis Werner, Applewhite survey, five miles southwest of Deadwood, after the Pettit and Travis Peak were found barren to 6,356 feet. Two miles northeast of Joaquin in Shelby County, but just over the line into Panola, Natural Gas Distributing Corporation, Nacogdoches, has staked No. 1 Bertha Brantley as a 6,600-foot test. Site falls north of the Joaquin gas pool and on a 254-acre lease in the T. F. Brantley survey."

B-5 Walton Brantley is shown as an overseer in the household of George and Nancy Watson in the 1860 Monroe County, Ala. Census. He enlisted in the Civil War on March 1, 1862 at Monroeville, Ala. under Lt. Graham for the War. He is shown as a Private in Company E, 23rd Regiment, Alabama Infantry. He appears on Hospital Muster Roll of General Hospital at Lauderdale Springs, Mississippi for March and April 1863 (dated April 30, 1863), attached to Hospital April 22, 1863 as a patient. Records show him on a Roll of Prisoners of War, captured near Dallas, Georgia (Paulding County) on June 2, 1864. He was sent on to Nashville, Tennessee and was transferred from there to a Military Prison at Louisville, Kentucky where he was further transferred on date of arrival to Rock Island, Illinois, with date of confinement there being indicated as June 16, 1864. His name appears as signature to an Oath of Allegiance to the United States, subscribed and sworn to at Rock Island Barracks, Illinois, Oct. 11, 1864, that being the date of his release. Military records describe him as complexion, dark; hair, brown; eyes, gray; height, 5.10, with place of residence being Monroe County, Ala. Walton Brantley did not marry until he was 43 years old. His wife, Martha A. McMillan, b. about 1840, was the daughter of Alexander Saunders McMillan and Elizabeth Pritchett McMillan. In 1870 Walton and Martha A. McMillan Brantley lived next to Rebecca Dewberry and Henry H. Watkins, a carpenter, in Beat #2 (Mill) of Conecuh County, Ala. In 1880 some negroes (Sallie Fowler, 30, and her two daughters, Fannie 12 and Lizzie 10) lived next to them, but George W. Searcy and Jeremiah Riley were close neighbors. Martha A. McMillan Brantley died as a result of injuries received in a storm which struck early in the night, pinning her beneath the wreckage of their house, which was of 1½-story design, located about two miles from Ramah Baptist Church. She lived for about 12 or 14 days after receiving the injuries, dying at the home of Mr. Temp Thames. She was a brunette and rather tall; she was a member of the Puryearville Methodist Church. One of her sisters, Mary Elizabeth McMillan (4/6/1844-2/12/1876), was the first wife of James A. Brady (1848-1917) and is buried at the Brady Cemetery near Drewry, Ala.

A favorite expression or byword of Walton Brantley was "Aye Sirs, a life!".

B-6 From descendants of Lot Whit and Mary Elizabeth (Thompson) Brantley, the compiler of this record has been able to ascertain the names of only nine of the children of that couple. Apparently, however, they had ten children - six sons, two of whom died when quite young, and four daughters. The child whose name I have been unable to determine would have been a boy. This information is contained in a typed copy of a newspaper clipping relative to Mrs. Mary E. Brantley which Myron J. Shires (S-54) gave me; I do not recall whether he has in his possession the newspaper clipping itself or a typed copy of it. This article states that she was born near Belleville, Ala., in the early Spring of 1829 and that she was a little more than 93 years of age when she died on Sept. 8, 1922 at the home of her son, Joseph Boykin Brantley, Bermuda, Ala. The author of that newspaper article and the inscription on her tombstone are in agreement that she was the daughter of Zedekiah and Elizabeth (Betsie) Thompson, but her tombstone indicates April 1830 as the date of her birth, which might well be in error since unquestionably the date shown thereon for her death, Sept. 8, 1899, is wrong. It is an established fact that Lot Whit and Mary Elizabeth Thompson Brantley celebrated their Golden Anniversary on Dec. 19, 1899. I have every reason to doubt the accuracy of the date of death shown for her on her grave-marker and have no reason to doubt the accuracy of Sept. 8, 1922 as being the date of her death, particularly in view of the fact that as a child I (B-19) remember her visiting in the home of her son, Henry Harrison Brantley.

In connection with the date of marriage of Lot Whit Brantley and Mary Elizabeth Thompson, Dec. 19, 1849, it is noted that the 1850 Conecuh County, Ala. Census shows her as 21 and single in the household of Zedekiah Thompson. This points up the need on the part of a searcher to read more in a particular census record than a specific entry in which he or she may be interested. The census year ran from dates other than the calendar year, generally from June 1 of the preceding year to May 31 of the year following, with entries being governed by strict rules and regulations such as that children born since June 1 of say 1850 would be omitted whereas members of families who have died since June 1 of that year would be included.

The inscription on the tombstone of Lot Whit Brantley is a lengthy one; not only does it give the county in Georgia (Twiggs) where he was born (Jan. 27, 1827), but it shows when he and his parents moved to Alabama (Oct. 27, 1827). On March 29, 1862 he joined for duty and enrolled in Capt. Cunningham's Company, 2nd Regiment, Alabama Cavalry, at Burnt Corn, Ala. for three years or War. This company subsequently became Company H, 2d Regiment, Alabama Cavalry. Military records show him on Company Muster-in Roll of the organization dated Montgomery, Ala., April 21, 1862. He was absent on sick leave for March 29 to June 30, 1862, but for June 30 to Oct. 31, 1862 he is shown as Present, Not Paid, and under remarks "Pay for horse 40 cts. per day $86.40". For Sept. and Oct. 1863 he is shown under remarks as "Detached at Pontotoc 6 Oct/63 and returned". He appears on a Report of officers and men of Brig. Gen. Ferguson's Command on detached service, dated Mch. 20, 1864, at Madison Station, Mississippi. His station was "Wagon driver for Gen'l. Jackson" and date of order is shown as Feb. 10, 1864. On Report of officers and enlisted men on detached service in Ferguson's Cavalry Brigade, dated Mch. 30, 1864. At Nr. Calhoun Station it shows he was detached Mch. 12, 1864 by Brig. Genl. Ferguson, Indef. time, and was at work as Teamster to Brig. Gen. Jackson. He appears on a Register of Floyd House and Ocmulgee Hospitals, Macon, Georgia, under date of Oct. 24, 1864, Floyd House as Hospital, Ferguson Brigade (P. O. or State, Evergreen, Ala.), Disease, Chronic Diarrh. G.D. & E. He appears on a Record of Confederate Soldiers Paroled at Headquarters, Sixteenth Army Corps, Montgomery, Ala. during the month of May 1865. (Roll not dated).

Pris. of War Record

Headquarters 16th Army Corps

Office Provost Marshal

Montgomery, Ala., May 27, 1865

I the undersigned L. W. Brantley, Private, H, 2 Ala. Cav. do solemnly swear that I will not bear arms against the United States of America, or give any information, or do any military duty whatever, until regularly exchanged as a prisoner of war.

L. W. Brantley x (his mark)

Description: 5' 10" Height; Dark Hair; Grey Eyes; Dark Complexion.

I certify that the above parole was given by me on the date above given and the above named L. W. Brantley will not be disturbed by U. S. authorities so long as he observes the conditions of his parole, and the laws and regulations in force where he resides. By Order of Major General A. J. Smith, J. A. Gedton, Capt. 72d Ills. Inf., and Ass't Provost Marshal.

Lot W. Brantley bought for $140.63 112½ acres in Conecuh County, Ala. Dec. 16, 1881 consisting of the North half of the North east quarter and North east quarter of the North West quarter of Section 24 in Township 6 N of Range 9E, through Land Office at Montgomery, Ala. $99.29 of this payment was in forfeited land stock under act of May 23, 1828, and $41.24 in cash.

See Nov. 6, 1947 issue of "The Evergreen (Ala.) Courant" relative to scientific timber farming on lands once owned by Lot Whit Brantley. This article mentions that Lot Whit Brantley, the grandfather of the present owners, operated a sawmill on the timber from these lands when timber then was a crop to be exploited.

B-7 The tombstone of Mary Thompson Brantley, the first wife of Charnic T. Brantley, indicates that she d. July 6, 1871, aged about 45 years, and that they were m. Feb. 2, 1854 and lived together 17 years. If her date of death as here recorded is correct, it would appear that they were divorced when Charnic T. Brantley m. Margaret Jane Morris Calloway, Aug. 14, 1870, at home of Enoch Morris, Monroe County, Ala. If, however, they "lived together" for 17 years, having married on Feb. 2, 1854, they would have been living together in 1871, and this would conflict with Aug. 14, 1870 as the date of his second marriage.

In the 1880 Conecuh County (Ala.) Census, Charnic T. Brantley is shown as a farmer, aged 50, married to Jane Brantley, aged 40. They lived next to Fielding Straughn. In the household of Charnic T. and Jane Brantley in 1880 there is a Fannie Lee, age 16, listed as being adopted by them. It would be interesting to know the circumstances surrounding this entry in the census records, particularly in view of the fact that Fanny Luvany Lee was m. to George Hunter Weaver at Repton, Ala., Dec. 12, 1889, the marriage ceremony having been performed by Rev. J. R. McGlaron. The Weaver family Bible at Lenox, Ala. states her name as "Lee" -- not Brantley -- and here again seem to be conflicting records. George Hunter Weaver and Fanny Luvany Lee Weaver were married about a month when he died as a result of injuries sustained in a logging accident. They had no children. Her sister, Mable Lucinda Lee, m. James (Jim) Deese. (See D-9). Another of her sisters, Lucy Octavia Lee (c.1857-1928) m. Albert Samuel Salter (1860-1942). See James Salter record.

See reference to Charnic T. Brantley in second paragraph under miscellaneous notes W-11, Page 143.

B-8 In 1880 Joseph and Caroline Brantley, with their then three children, Mary A., James H., and Amanda H., lived in Beat 3, Monroe County, Ala., next to John Chandler and James A. Brady. Joseph S. Brantley has a Masonic tombstone at Monroeville, Ala.

Oscar Tucker Brantley was a senior at Alabama Polytechnic Institute (now Auburn University), Auburn, Ala., when and where he died.

B-9 It is said that Boykin B. Brantley's name was Bob Boykin Brantley. He homesteaded land in Alabama under application #16879 for $W\frac{1}{2}$ of $SW\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 33 T8N, R.9E, containing 79.9 acres. Application shows his signature "by mark" on Aug. 22, 1891. He states in application that "I have a wife and two children and have resided on land continuously since first establishing residence thereon." He also says "I was building my house on the land when I made my first application, Jan. 1, 1885, and got it finished before June 1885 and lived there ever since. It's a framed house 24 x 16 ft., room on each side, and gallery on part of one side. There are four rooms in it, and it has a rock chimney." He states that he is 53 years old, Post Office is Glendale, Ala. There were also two log cribs, one log cotton house, shelter on each side of crib, 1 log stable, 1 log smoke-house, 12 acres land cleared, worth about \$300.00. This was through Land Office at Montgomery, Ala., but land was in Monroe County, Ala. See newspaper notice in The Monroe Journal, Monroeville, Ala. for six consecutive weeks from June 16, 1891 to August 22, 1891. Q. Salter was the publisher.

Boykin Brantley is shown in the household of Lot Whit and Mary E. Brantley as 22 years old in the 1860 Conecuh County, Ala. Census.

The wife of Boykin B. Brantley, Mrs. Mary Adella Mosley Weston (c.1836-1902), previously was married (Oct. 22, 1856) to J. R. Weston. By this marriage she had a daughter, Alice, who m. a Kittrell; two of her grandchildren by this marriage, Bob and Calvin Kittrell, live at Cantonment, Florida; they remember living in Mississippi. Boykin B. and Mary Adella Mosley Weston Brantley moved back to Ala. from Miss. about 1881 or 1883. (See B-44).

B-10 Lazarus Solomon Brantley is shown in the household of his brother, Harris Brantley, in the 1850 Conecuh County, Ala. Census. In 1870 he and his wife (shown as "Satrai") and daughter lived in Beat #2 (Mill) in Conecuh County, and in 1880 they are shown as living at Evergreen, Ala., where their daughter, Bettie, was in school. Boarding in their home at this time was John McMillan, 16, who also was attending school.

His military records show him as Solomon L. Brantley, Pvt., Capt. Stallworth's Company, Hilliard's Legion, Alabama Volunteers. He joined for duty May 14, 1862 at Evergreen, Ala. under Capt. N. B-15 Frank and Mary Elizabeth Page Brantley in 1880 lived next to Richard H. Ellis in Monroe County, Ala. If Nov. 4, 1893 be correct for date of birth of their daughter, Annie Mae, the date of April 24, 1892 definitely is in error for the date of death of Frank Brantley. I have seen a letter which was either written by him in 1884 or refers to him as being alive in that year.

B-16 Stark Hunter Brantley may have been named for Starke Hunter, who with his brother, Harry Hunter, Frank Boykin, and others was prominently identified with navigation on the Conecuh and Sepulga rivers after 1821. See Ch. XII, Riley's "History of Conecuh County, Alabama". There was a John Starke Hunter, an Alabama Judge, who was on the electoral ticket for Martin Van Buren in 1836.

Bolt, three miles south of Wills Point, Thursday, July 20, 1911, at 1 o'clock a. m. - Mrs. Stark Brantley - The friends and acquaintances of the family are requested to attend the funeral services at White Rose Cemetery tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. - Wills Point, Texas, July 20, 1911."

Martha "Patty" Fowler had brothers and sisters named Dr. Richard Fowler, William Fowler, Eliza Fowler, and Mamie Fowler. Their parents were Hickman and Nancy (Purvis) Fowler).

B-18 Mrs. Eva Blanche Alsup Brantley (B-48) has a newspaper clipping, probably from "The Wills Point Chronicle" which reads: "News has been received here by relatives of the death of L. W. Brantley in the city of Los Angeles, Calif., on Dec. 29, 1930, interment in Evergreen Cemetery in Los Angeles. Whit, as he was familiarly known to his friends, lived in this county many years ago and will be remembered by the older settlers of Wills Point and Van Zandt county. L. W. Brantley was born Nov. 9, 1861. He was the son of the late Hilliard and Emmaline Brantley, who were pioneer settlers of this county. The deceased was 69 years old at the time of his death, had resided in the city of Los Angeles for 20 years. He is survived by one son, one daughter, and one brother, Samuel Brantley, all of Los Angeles, Calif. A nephew, Riley Brantley, and a cousin, Miss Alma Chambers, reside in Wills Point."

The Los Angeles Times, issue of March 3, 1931, page 14, lists Lott Brantley on official death list as having died at Los Angeles, age 69, on Dec. 29, 1930.

B-19 There is in the possession of the family a sheepskin Masonic apron presented to A. O. Brantley at his initiation by Burnt Corn (Ala.) Lodge No. 489. He entered the Lodge Nov. 13, 1895, passed Dec. 11, 1895, and was raised Jan. 8, 1896. F. S. Dailey was W.M., A. O. Brantley, Secretary. Ajax Oelious Brantley said that Mrs. Emily Lee, whose husband was a minister, named him. In the October 23, 1907 issue of "The Evergreen Courant", Geo. W. Salter, Jr., Editor and Owner, it is stated: "A. O. Brantley, a well known and popular citizen of Burnt Corn, was here during court. A reporter of The Courant, having heard that Mr. Brantley would probably be an aspirant for tax assessor next year, asked him concerning the rumor. He would neither confirm or deny the report but smilingly said 'twas too early to talk much. However, we have it from good authority that the gentleman's friends are bringing pressure to bear upon him to enter the contest. He is an excellent citizen, has a wide acquaintance, and a large circle of friends and would make a strong race."

Mrs. Mary Celia Russell B. Brantley was previously married to Fred Marion Betts (c.1860-1914) at home of bride, Conecuh County, Ala., Nov. 23, 1899, by S. P. Lindsey, J.P. An account of her death appears in the Nov. 14, 1935 issue of "The Evergreen (Ala.) Courant", reading in part as follows: "Mrs. Mary R. Brantley, 61, one of Burnt Corn's most beloved women died suddenly Sunday morning at her home after being ill only since Friday night. She was the wife of A. O. Brantley, prominent resident of that community who himself has been seriously ill for some time. Mrs. Brantley was the daughter of the late Chas. G. and Caroline Robertson Russell of prominent Lowndes county families and was born and reared at West Side near Evergreen. Upon her marriage she moved to Burnt Corn and resided there since. She was a devoted wife and mother, and numbered her friends by all who knew her. Her going will be an irreparable loss to her family and community. She was a devout member of the Methodist Church, a lovable Christian who lived as nearly a perfect life as one can. She took an active interest in the school and all other community activities. Funeral services were held Monday from the Methodist Church, followed by interment in Puryearville cemetery, three miles west of Burnt Corn. The services were conducted by Rev. G. A. Barnes, assisted by Rev. R. D. Wright."
